Spirit Level

This evening we'll be considering some verses from St John's Gospel, chapters 14 and 16. As in previous weeks, Spirit Level aims to give an opportunity for worship, teaching, prayer and ministry in a contemporary and informal style.

In St Mary's Hall today:

Pioneers, 5.00-6.30 pm. Games, music, Bible study and discussion for all in Years 3-9.

Mandy (246609)

Youth Fellowship, 8.00-10.00 pm. Everyone age 13-18 welcome. Zoe Byrne (07950 932623)

To be a growing, loving family, with Christ at the centre, reaching out to all

Data Protection Act

As you are probably aware, the parish keeps records of the basic information you supply. Typically this includes names, addresses, and church groups. Importantly, all details of planned giving are kept separately and confidentially by the Parish Recorder.

We would like to assure you that none of this information will be divulged to any outside individuals or organisations. All the information is stored for use solely for administrative purposes within the parish in accordance with the Data Protection Act. If you have any concerns about this, please contact the parish office.

Advance Notice – First Wednesday

People have been asking me “What’s next?” for First Wednesday, following the series on Ephesians which concluded earlier this month.

The answer is ‘The Sermon on the Mount’, in other words St Matthew chapters 5 to 7. These three chapters are full of short passages which we recognise from Gospel readings as provided by the Church’s lectionary, but we rarely get the chance to consider them in depth or sequentially; yet they constitute one of the major blocks of Jesus’ teaching about – almost a blueprint for how life is to be in the Kingdom of God.

So I encourage you all to mark Wednesday February 1st in your diaries, 2.00pm in St John’s and 8.00pm in St Mary’s Hall, when we’ll be launching our series on The Sermon on the Mount with Matthew 5.1-16. See you there. CS

PCC+ Awayday

A reminder to members of the PCC and the others who have been invited that the PCC+ Awayday is next Saturday, 28th January, at the Churchgate House Centre in Cobham (KT11 3EJ for those of you with SatNav). We’ll be starting the day at 9.30am and will be finished by 4.00 pm.

Please would all members of the congregation pray for God’s blessing and guidance on all who will be present at the Awayday, on our discussions and decisions. CS
